Wheeler Asks Congress For Drastic Laws

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 16.—An [pending legislation to limit the amount thority of congress to fix one-half of one percent as the maximum alcoholic content of beverages in prohibition enforcement legislation is clear, Wayne M. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-Saloon League, declared today before the senate judiciary subcommittee, in answering recent statements of Samuel Untermyer, counsel for brewers.

"To allow the sale of 2 3/4 percent beer," said Mr. Wheeler, "would keep alive the liquor trade and defeat the purposes of national prohibition. Friends of prohibition do not want a code unless it defines intoxicating liquor."

Thirty-three prohibition states, and 13 local option states, Mr. Wheeler said, have laws limiting alcohol in beverages. He challenged Mr. Untermyer to produce any court decisions denying congress or state legislatures the right to make definitions.

"Congress cannot consistently adopt a weaker standard in defining the term than that already enacted in the states," said Mr. Wheeler. "This means nothing can be sold for beverage purposes that contains more than one-half of one percent alcohol."

Mr. Wheeler told the committee prohibition advocates were not asking that possession of liquors, bought before July 1 for personal use, be prohibited. He added, however, that they were suggesting amendments to the of liquors which may be stored in private residences, so as to "prevent homes from becoming speak eases."

Another amendment advocated by prohibition leaders, Mr. Wheeler said, is a provision for seizure of liquors to homes where it is sold illicitly.

"Bootleggers will maintain their homes as headquarters without such legislation," said he.

Two other amendments were urged by the witness. To prevent bootlegging he asked that the committee add a clause making mere personal and physical possession of intoxicants—such as the presence of a bottle in an individual's pocket—unlawful.

"This is the most effective weapon of prohibition enforcement," Mr. Wheeler said, and Senator Sterling suggested that bill be extended so as to penalize purchase as well as sale of intoxicating beverages.

Mr. Wheeler also asked for sweeping search warrant powers, suggesting that seizures be authorized without a warrant, or at least that warrants be issued without requiring testimony in support of requests. Otherwise, he said, liquor might be removed before officers could net.

Senator Walsh, of Montana, and other committee members opposed extension of the bill's search warrant provisions and also insisted that the provisions penalizing searches without warrants should remain.

CHICAGO FACES STRIKE

CHICAGO, July 16.—Representatives of the 15,000 surface and elevated railway employees today began preparations for taking a vote on the question of a strike to enforce their demands for an increase of 37 cents an hour in wages and better working conditions.

Next Friday was set as the time for taking the vote but a resolution adopted at a mass meeting of the employees requires that the committee appointed to carry on negotiations must exhaust all reasonable means to obtain the employees' demands and a strike by the companies in their joint announcement to the union, refusing the demands, stated that to grant the increase in wages of 37 cents an hour, or to increase wages to 55 cents an hour, would necessitate raising of fares to 9 or 10 cents.

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP OF STREET RAILWAYS MAY SOLVE PRESENT SITUATION

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 18.—
Declaring street railway employees clearly are entitled to the wage increases granted by the war labor board, Guy E. Tripp, chairman of the Westinghouse Manufacturing Company, told the federal street railway commission here today that some basis of facts on a cost of service plan should be worked out between the public and the traction companies.

The commission was appointed by President Wilson to investigate the whole street railway situation and recommend methods for relief of the companies, many of which are on the verge of bankruptcy.

Municipal ownership was believed by Mr. Tripp to be among the possibilities of the present situation.

BILLY-BUT-IN
—TIMES WEATHER-MAN—

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 16.—Declaring street railway employees clearly were entitled to the wage increases granted by the war labor

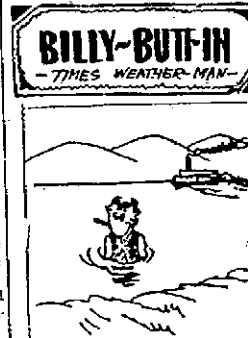

Questioned by members of the commission, Mr. Tripp said great fortunes had been made by street railway corporations in the past, but not through revenues from fares. A return was never paid on a five cent fare, he said, but "heaps were capitalized and hopes were sold." He added that there was no question but that disincorporation or over-capitalization, stocks manipulation and the use of corporate inducements in the past were a large measure responsible for the difficulties now being experienced by the traction companies.

Wants Copy Of Treaties Of Japan Or German Rights

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 16.—A request for copies of any treaties affecting Japan or German rights in China was sent to the state department today by the senate foreign relations committee.

The motion to ask for this information was adopted by unanimous vote, members agreeing that the committee could better consider the Shantung settlement in the treaty of Versailles if it had the text of the Chinese-German convention of 1898, the Japanese-Chinese pact of 1915, and any other international engagements bearing on the subject.

No other formal action affecting the treaty with Germany was taken by the committee during its two hour session today, nearly all the time being devoted to a continuation of the reading of the text. (In suggestion of Senators Fall, of New Mexico, and Moore, of New Hampshire, both Republicans, the committee passed over entirely for future consideration Part IV, which contains the Shantung provision and certain stipulations regarding Morocco, Egypt, Turkey, Bulgaria and other territory.)

The principal argument developed against the suggestion that the United States might be required under Part IV, and similar provisions to provide a part of an international army of occupation.

Extension of the arbitration treaty with Italy, Spain and the Netherlands was approved by the committee without discussion and without a record vote.

It's all very interesting to read how Jack Dempsey, a big boy himself, won the heavyweight championship, but the average boy would much rather hear the story from Jack's own lips. These boys, including the one who's still a lad though he's probably a daddy—are in the seventh heaven as Jack tells how his first real blow was a right to Willard's heart and his next a left to Willard's jaw. These two blows put Willard in a daze, from which he couldn't recover.

England May Recall Envoy To Vatican

LONDON, July 16.—The British government is considering the question of withdrawing its envoy from the Vatican, Cecil D. Harcourt, undersecretary of state for foreign affairs, declared in the house of commons today.

Mr. Harcourt added that he had no confirmation of the statement made by Robert J. Lynn, unionist member, who had questioned the government, that owing to the hostility of the Vatican to the allies during the war, the continued presence of the envoy was causing considerable resentment amongst many who had lost relatives in the war.

Mr. Lynn represents the Woodvale division of Belfast.

Prior to August, 1916, the British government was not represented at the Vatican. On August 18 of that year, Count J. P. C. Desails was appointed envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary on a special mission to the Holy See.

Pictures Will Show Y. M. C. A. War Work

CHICAGO, July 16.—Motion pictures taken under fire by United States Signal Corps photographers for the war department's files at Washington are to be used in a great fire-free feature, "The Truth About the Y," which is to be released soon by the Central Department of the National War Work Council, Y. M. C. A.

The picture shows every phase of the Y. M. C. A. war work in the camps in this country, on the transports, on the firing line and after the armistice was signed. It is a complete record, made up principally for the Washington files, but now to be used as a silent counter-comment on recent criticisms.

"The men who took these overseas pictures were not propagandists," says the Central Department publicity director, "and were not there for the purpose of misrepresentation, one way or the other. They were making an official motion picture record of the war for preservation in Washington. But it happens that these pictures show just what the Y. M. C. A. was doing over there, and people who want to give the Y. M. C. A. a square deal should see this film before forming final judgment. The picture will not be distributed through the theaters as a commercial proposition, but will be on exhibition at Y. M. C. A. buildings, church socials, lodge meetings, and so on. It will be available for Y. M. C. A. secretaries early in August."

What Is Rheumatism?
Why Suffer from It?

Sufferers Should Realize That It Is a Blood Infection and Can Be Permanently Relieved. Rheumatism means that the blood has become saturated with uric acid. It does not require medical advice to know that good health is absolutely dependent upon pure blood. When the impurities and poisons become saturated and drawn with rheumatism, it is a wise thing to take a little salt and by rubbing it on the sore spot, expect to get rid of your rheumatism. Must go deeper than that, down deep into the blood where the poison lurks.

Girl Almost Drowns, Is Saved By A Young Boy

Miss Ruby Boggs, 15 year old daughter of Lon Boggs, Fullerton, had a narrow escape from drowning, about 5 o'clock Monday evening, when she got beyond her depth in a backwater stream of the Ohio, near Coney Island.

Miss Boggs and her two brothers were bathing in one of the waters, filled with and in attempting to join Mrs. S. M. Robertson and daughter, Pearl, who were near the point where the backwater meets the Ohio, got in over her head and went down. Miss Robertson who was watching the approach of her friend thought she was diving and called, "Are you diving?"

Deciding no answer she became frightened, and although unable to swim, herself, started to the rescue of the young woman. Flailing herself in deep water and incapable of reaching Miss Boggs, she began to call for help. Clarence Cline, 24 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cline, of Fullerton, was swimming with some boys in the Ohio, near, heard her cries and reached the drowning girl just as she was going down for the third time. The girl had begun to struggle as soon as she could no longer touch bottom, and only her hair could be seen floating upon the water.

Aided by Mrs. Robertson and daughter, the other boys attracted to the scene, worked over Miss Boggs for nearly a half hour, before she was breathing normally. Soon after she was taken to her home where she has since been confined, being extremely nervous after her terrible experience.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Miss Wise—I am a 19 year old girl, but am very unhappy. Although I am sensible and respected by all, I seem to have no one to talk to. I feel as if I am going with a lot of things and I am not getting on. All I hear is: "You got a sister to go with and we can afford to pay for your entertainment; you don't need young men." Although if one was very healthy she would not object to the fact. Do you think that she is fair? My sister and I are getting so disappointed that the love for our home and mother is vanishing. It is no, I do not think your mother is fair. On the contrary, I think a mother should and an almost sort of mother not to realize that a daughter of 19 should be allowed to have men friends to go about with. Where are the memories of their own girlhood days? It is a sad reflection on the home influence if at the age of 19 the mother feels she cannot trust her in the company of men. I wonder why mothers do not realize how much more happiness they could bring into their own lives and that of their grown daughters in sanctioning their having men friends, letting them come to their homes, and by the mothers entering into the fun of the occasion with the girls. A mother who is "one of the girls" has the entire confidence of her daughter, and with her better judgment she may direct the dissipation of her daughter's time. The happiness of a girl is not to be undervalued without causing friction and a possible waywardness by the daughter. Being a mother is the greatest job in the world, and among the truly great of them are those who realize that youth demands a certain amount of excitement and fun and plan that it shall be given them under the happiest circumstances.

Dear Miss Wise—I have been going with a boy for some time and we have been the best of friends until lately, when he has acted so queer. I really can't understand. When he calls up he talks only of other girls and the dances he goes to or is going to, but never thinks of asking me, though he used to take me out often. I go out with other young men and he seems pleased that I am having a good time. He doesn't come over so often as before, but I really can't believe that he dislikes me, for he never seems cross and calls up every other day. How shall I treat him? Shall I ask him what's wrong or just let him alone?

should nurse the baby after you have rested yourself and are not hurried or hot. The child should be nursed at regular times and not just because it cries. There are other ways to amuse a child besides feeding it, although that is a common error among mothers who give little thought to their child's welfare.

To the Woman Who "Never Has Any Luck Putting Up Fruit and Berries"

How even a Beginner can be Sure of Perfect Results in Making Jams, Jellies and Preserves

Good home preserving is now easy to accomplish. Even the housewife who "never has any luck" with all sugar preserving can put up fruit perfectly if she will first make her preserving syrup with 1/2 Karo (Red Label) and 1/2 sugar—instead of sugar alone.

By this method you can always have the finest, most delicious jams, good clear jellies, and preserves with a rich, heavy syrup.

Karo is a fine, clear syrup, with a natural affinity for the fruit juices.

It blends the fruit with the sugar, doing away with one of the great difficulties of putting up fruit at home, and just about cutting the work in half.

You can depend on it that fruit put up by this method will never grow tough or "candy" in the glass.

For Cooking, Baking and Candy Making Karo (Red Label) is used in millions of homes. In all cooking and baking recipes use Karo instead of sugar. It is sweet, of delicate flavor, and brings out the natural flavor of the food.

FREE The experienced housewife as well as the beginner will find unusual interest in the new sixty-eight page Corn Products Cook Book. Beautifully illustrated—and suggestions galore for preserving, etc. It is free—write us today for it.

HOOVER Sweepers in the White House

The following is taken from the American Exporter for July: Among the labor-saving devices installed in the White House, Washington, D. C., is a battery of Hoover electric suction sweepers, made by the Hoover Suction Sweeper Co., North Canton, Ohio. All the costly rare carpets and furnishings of the presidential home are cleaned at regular periods by the Hoover sweepers, which were selected after a thorough test of many models.

In addition to the White House, the Washington homes of six of the nine United States Supreme Court Justices are equipped with Hoover sweepers.

Among the foreign potentates who have recognized the excellence of American electrical goods, is the Emperor of Japan. Two Hoover electrical suction sweepers in the palace of the Mikado now do the work of several trained servants.

DISCUSS RUSSIAN BLOCKADE

PARIS, Tuesday, July 15.—(By the Associated Press)—The council of the League of Nations, which met this afternoon, its chief topic of discussion being the Russian blockade. There have been proposals that the powers shall allow ships to enter Russian ports under special permits, the United States having constantly insisted that there has been no blockade against Russia except such as is incidental to the embargo on imports to Germany. Consequently the American delegates were not ready to take any action in the matter until instructions have been received from Washington.

It has been suggested that most of the Black Sea ports could be blockaded by the Denikine government, which is friendly to the allies, but the supreme council has not decided to ask him to declare such a blockade.

A note has been received from Bela Kun, the foreign minister of the Hungarian government, declaring that the Czechs and Rumanians violated the terms of the armistice with Hungary and that, consequently, Hungarian forces were ordered to cross the boundaries fixed by the armistice.

The note claims that this order was issued in self-defense. The boundaries fixed by the armistice are so uncertain that the supreme council has referred the matter to a military commission for decision.

Dog Was Not Mad

Another dog bit the long, long last the other day when its teeth made a skin tear in the left leg of R. F. Bennett, 1556 Sixth street. The dog, a terrier, belonged to the household of Charles Hockenheimer, 2139 Fifth street, and claimed the affection of the family as it had belonged to the small son who had died.

After the dog bit Mr. Bennett, it was taken to Dr. Joseph Lake, who said it did not have rabies, but feared the dread disease, the dog was ordered killed and the head sent to Columbus. The report received today showed the dog did not have rabies.

Alkali In Soap Bad For The Hair

Soap should be used very carefully if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Resinol cleared mine completely. It is a pure and greaseless formula and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub in. In recommending Honorable Simeon M. Johnson, of Cincinnati, for the vacancy on the United States District Court of Appeals, Senator Pomeroy has recognized one of the ablest attorneys in this section. Mr. Johnson has long been recognized as one of the leaders of the Cincinnati bar and in ability, character and integrity he fully justifies the high esteem in which he is held. Should Mr. Johnson be appointed by the president, he will prove a worthy successor of the distinguished John W. Warrington who has resigned on account of age, and will add new lustre to the record of the court. Hundreds of friends of Mr. Johnson throughout Ohio hope to have the pleasure of congratulating him upon his appointment.

It is quite commendable in council to determine to meet growing demands by giving city facilities to new additions. All progressive cities do that. Why Akron, Ohio, is laying miles of water mains now to additions that exist only in name, but which, within a year, will be built up. And as a result of public spirit along this line, Akron is one of the fastest growing cities in the world. Akron gives her factories room to grow by providing homes for the men and women who will be employed. Portsmouth will grow too, grow rapidly, as soon as our building keeps up with the demand. So let us go ahead and do what we can this year. Next year we can keep up the good work, and the burden will not be excessive.

If Great Britain should drop us a note one of these days and suggest that it would be self-determination to let New York form an independent government, a howl would go up that could be heard to high heaven. Yet that is just what some citizens are proposing that the United States do in the matter of Ireland. Ireland is an integral part of the British empire just the same as New York state is a part of the United States and however much we may sympathize with Ireland, we have no right to interfere, unless we are prepared to fight the British Empire to sustain our representations. And we do not think anybody in America is hankering for war.

Portsmouth is a pretty good town, in which to live and conditions here, both as to living expenses and wages, are on a par with most other places. These are things to be taken into consideration when alluring offers are made to you to take a job somewhere else. There is sometimes a string of some kind, only it does not develop until it is too late to turn back. Of course there are opportunities that one cannot afford to turn down, but careful investigation should be made before coming to a decision.

When the peace treaty question has ceased to agitate, we are going to start a new commotion by writing a letter to Mr. Wilson and asking him to please tell the director general of railroads that Portsmouth was once promised a new depot by the Norfolk & Western railroad, and that he had better build it before all the money is spent.

We are victims of a dark suspicion that the Manufacturers Oil and Gas Company, of Pittsburgh, has an oil pocket spotted on our possessions on Brush Creek and some day is going to dig or drill down to it and make an oil magnum out of us over night. Else why should the said corporation keep on paying us lease rentals and refuse to cancel the lease when we are perfectly willing to let them off?

With the growth of aerial navigation, we suppose the day will be not far distant when the Times will own a couple of little planes and will deliver its edition all over the county right after publication hour. Sounds fanciful, does it not, but it is not unlikely within the next five years.

Having experimented in driving a machine for a few days, we are quite ready to agree with the viewpoint of the average autoist that the other fellow is always the derdest contrariest and most reckless driver that ever had hold of an automobile wheel.

Our young niece, just home from a long visit to Chicago, is quite blasé on the subject of large cities. She says Chi is quite a town but for her part she does not see that it has much on Portsmouth except that it is a little bigger. And as for movies, why she didn't see any that had a thing on our own.

Queer world. A man who never took a drink in his life, who hates intoxicating liquors like poison, told us yesterday that he had been experimenting with raisins in a certain unfermented drink and that he believed there was really something in the yarn after all. And he grew indignant when we laughed.

Men used to get drunk and then sick. But with the new drinks about all they'll be able to do will be to get sick.—Toledo Blade.

We suspect the only objection the Germans have to the published announcement that Clemenceau is going to retire, is that he didn't think of it soon enough.—Wilmington News.

Of course a national career of splendid isolation is all right, but with air ships cavorting across the ocean in a couple of days it is going to be blamed hard to be isolated. And just think what will happen in the next war, with its possibilities of aerial transportation of troops.

If they keep on establishing republics at the present rate in the old country, pretty soon there won't be any titles left except in American lodge-rooms.—Parsons (Kan.) Sun.

THE WISHING PLANE

BY WILLIS WINTER

The king of course never had dozen men. You could tell in a minute known of the secret door in the palace that they were members of the cellar, and, of course, did not know where the passageway might lead to. When he and Jack and the guards started down the passage to explore it and try to find the booty taken by the robbers, three or four of the strongest guards were sent on ahead. Jack wanted to take the lead, to be sure, but the king told him that it would be safer for both of them to follow the guards. Jack soon found that he was right, for two or three times in turning corners in the darkness the guards fell into holes or stumbled upon stairs which led to new levels.

The guard in the lead finally stopped and whispered back that he could see a light farther down the passage. From then on everyone walked on tiptoe. Jack was almost forced to crawl along the floor while one of the guards kept along the floor on his hands and knees to clear the way of rubbish and anything that the men or Jack might trip over and make a noise.

At last Jack and his friends could make out the cause of the light. It was a small fire in the center of a room. Around the fire sat half a

Within an hour.
Or it would die.

And I coughed for time.
And she looked interested.
As if I was to continue.
So I told her.

That the strawberries.
In Ungawina.
Were as big as her head.
And that the treaders.

Would eat the strawberries.
Until their heads.
Would begin to swell.

And then they would fly.
Clear to the north pole.
Where their heads.

Would freeze solid.
And the natives.
Would catch them.

And break off their heads.
And ship them to America.
Where they would be used.

For billiard balls.
And just then the father.
Came back from shopping.

And had scotchirishandgin.
Under his arm.
And a little inside.

And later I heard the child.
Outside my door say:
"That poor man."

"Dought to be looked after."
"He doesn't seem right."
"But I had to listen."

"For I was afraid of him."
"He told the silliest story."
So there you are!

THE GOOSE THAT LAYS GOLDEN EGGS

DOC KOKO'S KOLUMB

Today in History
Anniversary of Birth of Joshua Reynolds
Reynolds (July 16, 1723.)
(By Carolyn Wells.)
Sir Joshua Reynolds, painter.
A great and honored name;
Two or three thousand portraits
Attest his deathless fame.

A gentleman of old England,
Social and debonair;
He traveled in art-filled Italy
And studied the Masters there.

He founded a school of painting.
His praise his pupils sing;
And he was made, in later years,
A painter to the King.

Who does not know his picture
And give an honored place
To little Fendele floozie
With her quaint and winsome face.

Not Quite Ready
A hunter more heartless than successful joined a bear hunting expedition. During the hunt, as this man was resting by the side of a rock and talking with another, he remarked:

"If there's anything I detest on this bear, a slice of bear steak nicely done is just perfect."

"Well," said his companion, looking up, "I'm hungry if there isn't a bear now."

The man who "doted on bear" looked up, saw an immense grizzly standing on the top of the rock, gave a yell and leaped into the woods and disappeared. His companion soon overtook him and said to the fugitive as he came up:

"I thought you liked bear!"

"Well, I do," said the runaway; "but that one ain't done enough!"

What to Tell Him
That you just love to hear him laugh.

That he wears a rather beach suit just right.

That he has the nicest, broadest shoulders.

That you can hand that new silk shirt a lot.

That he is the best dancer you know.

That he is such a good, understanding sort, you like to talk to him.

That you like the way his eyes twinkle when he smiles.

That he is the only fellow who ever kissed you.

That he shows such good taste in ties.

That he is so strong he makes you feel so little, and insignificant, "necery thing."

That he is—well, any old thing you happen to think of—C. E. C.

Yep, Then Were The Days!
The good old times, the good old times! The foolish person whines—He's like the silly lightning bug. With his scorchlight on behind him.

The Colonel
A colonel of a colored regiment coming in about 10:30 o'clock was duly challenged by the sentry and responded:

"Colonel _____, officer of the camp."

The sentry tried his best to pierce the darkness, gave it up, and finally said:

"Look wah, man, recall ah de both man what's done tried to make no think he's Colonel — Go away wid dat stuff!"

The colonel pretty warmly re-affirmed that he was Colonel _____ and demanded immediate admission.

The coast unobscured, told him to step up so that he could see him. The colonel walked up to him in a rage, and you can imagine his consternation after tomorrow's Exchange.

There's a Reason
Mrs. Harit—Yes, I have no doubt there are unhappy marriages, but really I cannot understand how they are possible. Now, there's George and I, we are so devoted. He says he could not exist without me, and I'm sure I live only for him.

Mrs. Greene—You really are to be congratulated both of you. By the way, how long have you been married?

Mrs. Harit—Just a week the day and you can imagine his consternation

after tomorrow's Exchange.

TREATY DEBATE EXPECTED TO CREATE BITTERNESS

SHERMAN AND BORAH PRIMED FOR ACTION, SHANTUNG IS THE BONE

WASHINGTON, July 16.—With the treaty in adjournment until tomorrow, the foreign relations committee had opportunity today to devote several hours to the consideration of reading the peace treaty section by section. It was expected that before night virtually the entire document would be considered for the first time.

About one-fifth of the text was gone over yesterday. The League of Nations covenant and the section dealing with German boundaries being among the portions passed over to be taken up later. Today it was planned to similarly skip the Shantung section, together with other features likely to meet opposition.

Several senators were understood to be preparing to take part in the debate on Shantung, which began in a stormy session yesterday and will be resumed tomorrow. Senator Sherman, Republican of Illinois, had given notice he would speak tomorrow and it was expected Senator Borah, Republican of Idaho, would call up his resolution, asking for a copy of a letter said to have been written by General Bliss, Secretary Lansing and Henry White, protesting against the Shantung settlement. Mr. Borah tried to get action on it yesterday, but unanimous consent for its consideration was refused by Senator Mitchell, Democrat, ranking Democrat of the committee.

The Borah resolution is expected to stir the senate to a debate rivaling in bitterness the exchanges of yesterday, when Senator Lodge, Republican of Massachusetts, the foreign relations chairman, charged that Shantung was the purchase price for Japan's acceptance of the League of Nations.

Senators Borah, Full, New Mexico, and Norris, Nebraska, all Republicans, joined in the attack on the Shantung agreement, and Senator Hitchcock and Senator Williams, Democrats, Mississippi, defended President Wilson's course in the matter.

GOES BACK FOR INSTRUCTIONS

PARIS, July 16.—The departure of Dr. Theodore Lewald, head of a German commission from Versailles, on Saturday followed a discussion between Dr. Lewald and the inter-allied Rhineland commission as to a proposal made by Germany that no difference should be made as regards postal and census regulations between occupied and unoccupied Germany. No reply was given the German proposal and it is believed it will be sent later. The allied representatives, however, seemed unwilling to accept the German view. When Dr. Lewald left Versailles, it was said he was going to Berlin to receive further instructions from his government and would return in a few days.

ELECTRIC RAILWAYS HIT BY OPERATING EXPENSES, TESTIMONY OF EXPERTS

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 16.—(By the Associated Press)—The marketing of electric railway securities were outstanding phases of the present chaotic street railway situation touched upon today by witnesses before the federal electric railway commission. This is the commission appointed by President Wilson to suggest means of affording relief to electric railways of the country, which are declared by their managements to be on the verge of bankruptcy.

Colonel Joseph H. Alexander, of Cleveland, testified as to higher costs, the pointed out among other things wage increases granted labor by the government during the war, which sometimes approximated 100 percent and said no means for recovering this additional outlay was furnished the companies.

"Conditions in the electric railways securities market were destroyed," said H. A. Stewart, of Chicago. He said the market was in a deplorable state because of the companies' financial condition.

William J. Clark, of New York, a former street railway man, testified as to general conditions. Mr. Clark built the first electric freight line in this country in 1887. It was a failure for many years, he said, but pioneered the way for later day interurban freight traffic.

GEN. PERSHING WILL LEAD 3,400 DOUGHBOYS THRU LONDON IN VICTORY MARCH

LONDON, Tuesday, July 15.—(By the Associated Press)—A composite regiment of the United States soldiers, 3,400 strong, headed by General Pershing, will lead the great victory march through London on Saturday, July 19, according to the completed program announced tonight. The decision to have the allied troops march in alphabetical order as to nations resulted in the place of honor going to the Americans. The parade will take an unusual route, starting from Hyde Park chiefly and proceeding along the south side of the Thames.

After the Belgian contingent, the French, a thousand strong, will follow, and then a rather small body of Italians, a detachment of Japanese and other allied representatives. The forces of the British empire will march behind the allied contingents.

WILL REVISE TREATY

PARIS, Tuesday, July 15.—(By the Associated Press)—July 29 has been fixed as the date upon which representatives of Holland and Belgium will meet delegates of the great powers in Paris and begin work on the revision of the treaty of 1830.

BURLESON WILL STICK AS CABINET MEMBER

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 16.—President Wilson and his cabinet met yesterday for the first time in nearly seven months. The meeting lasted more than two hours and at its conclusion it was understood that a vast number of domestic problems had been under discussion and that the president had acquainted the cabinet officers with intimate details of the peace negotiations in Paris.

All of the nine members were present with the exception of Secretary of State Lansing, who is en route home from Paris. His place was taken by Under Secretary Volke.

Discusses Appointments
There were indications that among the subjects discussed there were demobilization, resumption of commercial relations with Germany, the Russian situation, Mexican and governmental financial matters.

Before and after the president conferred with individual members of the cabinet, Attorney General Tamm arrived fifteen minutes before the meeting and discussed among other things appointments for federal judgeships in Missouri, Ohio and Georgia. Apparently names were decided upon but it was indicated they would not be announced until they had been read to the senate for confirmation.

Burleson, Wilson Center
Postmaster General Burleson remained with the president for an hour after the meeting had broken up. He went directly from the White House to his office and soon after it was announced that the postal relations would be established with Germany at once.

Responding to inquiries the postmaster general said as he left the White House that there was "absolutely no truth" in recent rumors that he was about to leave the cabinet.

Spanish Cabinet Quits

LONDON, July 16.—The Spanish cabinet, headed by Antonio Maura, which was formed on April 15 last, has resigned, according to a Reuter's dispatch from Madrid.

FOOD PRICES FALL IN BERLIN

BERLIN, Tuesday, July 15.—(By the Associated Press)—Prices of all foodstuffs have fallen with a crash in Berlin as a result of the lifting of the blockade. They began to show weakness when it was rumored that the embargo would be lifted, but the real drop came only when Allied dealers with large concealed stocks brought them out in a virtual panic to unload before competing supplies entered.

Tons of provisions are being shipped in from occupied territories, while everywhere in the city great stores of coffee, cocoa, butter, sausages and other supplies have made their appearance. Coffee prices fell from an average of 10 marks to below 20 yesterday, and product could easily be bought for 15. Other food prices were correspondingly cut.

GERMANY'S NEW TAX BILL

BERLIN, Tuesday, July 15.—(By the Associated Press)—It is reported that the government's new tax bill will include a surplus assessment of capital amounting to 30 percent, and also a drastic imperial income tax, the receipts from which will be apportioned among the federated states according to their needs.

Marinus Erbsberger, minister of finance, is understood to be planning to centralize the nation's tax assessment, abolishing the necessity for an individual tax in financing part of the federated states. An increase in the general trading tax, especially on articles of luxury, is also planned. It includes a ten percent levy on advertising.

The national assembly this morning rejected the Socialist motion to abolish marks of nobility, but declared in favor of a constitutional process decreasing the equality of all men and women and refusing to recognize special rights or privileges based on birth or social station. The new constitution prohibits a German citizen from accepting a title or decoration from a foreign government.

DISCUSS RUSSIAN BLOCKADE

PARIS, Tuesday, July 15.—(By the Associated Press)—The council of the five met this afternoon. Its chief topic of discussion being the Russian blockade. There have been proposals that the powers shall allow ships to enter Russian ports under special permits, the United States having constantly insisted that there has been no blockade against Russia except such as is incidental to the embargo on imports to Germany. Consequently the American delegates were not ready to take any action in the matter until instructions have been received from Washington.

It has been suggested that most of the Black Sea ports could be blockaded by the Dunkirk government, which is friendly to the allies, but the supreme council has not decided to ask him to declare such a blockade.

A note has been received from Bela Kun, the foreign minister of the Hungarian government, declaring that the Czechs and Rumanians "violated the terms of the armistice with Hungary and that, consequently, Hungarian forces were ordered to cross the boundaries fixed by the armistice. The note claims that this order was issued by the armistice are so uncertain that the supreme council has deferred the matter to a military commission for decision.

SAMMIES NOT BEST PAID SOLDIERS IN THE WORLD

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 16.—(By the Associated Press)—The American soldier is higher paid than that of any other country, is erroneous, according to an official table issued today by the general staff. This shows the three British dominions—Australia, New Zealand and Canada—allow materially higher pay for each grade than does the United States. For instance, in the Australian army a corporal earns $72.00 per month, as compared to $36 in the American army. The other extreme is shown in the cases of France, Japan and Italy, where the private receives $1.50, 78 cents and 58 cents per month, respectively, against the $30 paid the American doughboy.

MILLIONS OF MILITARY PASSENGERS ACCOMMODATED BY U. S. TRAINS

WASHINGTON, July 16.—The railroads of the United States hauled 427,000 troops on special military trains for an average of 920 miles each in the first six months of 1919 according to statistics made public today by Director General Bliss. In addition, probably two million officers and men made railway trips while on furlough and another million were transported from camps to their homes after discharge, making a total of 7,500,000 military passenger accommodations in all the cars on regular passenger trains added to the usual civilian travel. The military traffic in six months required about 100 million train miles and as much of the equipment had to be sent empty in one direction, this figure could be doubled to express the aggregate transportation demand by the military forces.

"This extraordinary demand explains," the railroad administration statement said, "why it has not been able to meet all of the requests for exchange trains and why in some cases military passenger accommodations in all the cars on regular passenger trains added to the usual civilian travel. The have been crowded."

STEAMER SINKING

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 16.—A radio message received at the navy department today said the American steamer Allison "was sinking with water fast and will sink any minute."

The Allison's position was given as 11 miles from Fennick Island shoals, off the coast of Maryland. The coast guard cutter Morrill is proceeding to her assistance.

Coming Home Thursday

Weidemanns Will Play All Stars At Millbrook On Sunday

Queen City Aggregation Hopes To Even Up Series, 1,500 Fans Should Be Out

The fans of Portsmouth will be interested in the announcement that the strong Weidemanns team, of Cincinnati, will play "Gale's All Stars" at Millbrook Park, next Sunday afternoon, beginning at 2:30 o'clock. Manager Charles Applegate, of the Weidemanns, writes to Manager Gableman that his club next Sunday will be recruited to its fullest possible strength and he is hoping that his club will even up the series. It will be recalled that on the recent visit of the Weidemanns to this city, June 22, the All Stars won a two game series, 3 to 2, in what many fans thought was one of the most exciting games ever witnessed at Millbrook Park. Lucas and Rolfe pitched for the All Stars, the latter receiving credit for winning the game. Bender pitched for the Weidemanns and elicited a most effective game. Manager Applegate states that the All Stars from one of the strongest professional teams he ever saw in action. When the first game was arranged he had no idea that Portsmouth could recruit such a swell club of players. Hence, he says, he did not bring three of his regulars with him. This state of affairs is looked upon as an slight thing, anything else, although Mr. Applegate is a man of honest words and high motives. If he can get a better team than the one that showed here on June 22, the fans will take off their hats to the aggregation. The team as it lined up against the locals looked to be stronger in every department, and it was hard to see how it could be improved.

The fans of Portsmouth, however, will be out to back the All Stars to the last ditch. They have come to realize that Portsmouth is represented by an aggregation that could hold its own in any minor league. It is strong in every department and especially in the box. Manager Gableman, who has charge of the playing end, believes he has an extremely effective line of outfielders and it is a toss up with him which one he shall call to do the box work against the Cincinnati team next Sunday.

Despite the great expense Manager Gableman will be obliged in bringing the Weidemanns to this city, the admission price of 25 cents will prevail. A nice day and 1,500 fans should be out for baseball. In being served in this city far beyond the most sanguine expectations of the local club owners. The fans are glad that the industrial league credit for the revival of interest in this they are not far wrong. The All Stars are practically all members of the industrial league and they get plenty of practice and keep on edge at all times.

The strong Newporters of Cincinnati have written in for a series of games with the All Stars and it is likely that this city far beyond the most sanguine expectations of the local club owners. The fans are glad that the industrial league credit for the revival of interest in this they are not far wrong. The All Stars are practically all members of the industrial league and they get plenty of practice and keep on edge at all times.

Anyhow, Manager Gableman is bringing the best possible aggregation to Millbrook and the fans of Portsmouth have complete faith in his ability to pick the five men. He never allows expense to stand in the way of providing high class attractions for the fans as is shown by the fact the Weidemanns will be here on next Sunday.

Red Fans Going To Polo Field

Definite arrangements regarding the Red rooting party, of Cincinnati, which is in process of formation to go to New York during the coming series with the Giants will be made with the return of President Herrmann from the east. It is believed that Herrmann will return to New York with the party, which plans to leave Sunday morning.

Tom Logan was one of those who signified his intention of going east with the party, declaring that it would be a big boost for the city to have such a party go 700 miles to attend the three games.

Those in charge of the party have made arrangements to give every member a separate room and bath while in New York. Any members desiring to remain in New York can do so, and their return tickets will be honored.

Vaughn Finds Pirates Easy

Jim Vaughn, the Cubs' big pitcher, charged with losing two games to the Pirates, though he entered both of these games in the closing innings, showing to the relief of a teammate. He beat them five times in a row in 1917, and the Pirates 28 times in his six campaigns in the senior major league circuit and has won 23 of these games. He joined the Cubs in the fall of 1918, but did not work in a game against the Pirates that year.

In 1914 he turned the Smoky City out to back five times in six starts, and in 1915 won three out of four against the Pittsburgh crew. In 1916 he was charged with losing two games to the Pirates, though he entered both of these games in the closing innings, showing to the relief of a teammate. He beat them five times in a row in 1917, and the Pirates 28 times in his six campaigns in the senior major league circuit and has won 23 of these games. He joined the Cubs in the fall of 1918, but did not work in a game against the Pirates that year.

A. A. LEADERS SUFFER BATTING SLUMP

The majority of the American Association leaders suffered a batting slump, but their relative positions showed little change. Hendrix, Louisville, continued to lead with .323, while Cochran, Kansas City, was the big exception to the rule, having added .22 to his average. The triple play for runs scored shared by Becker and W. Miller, Kansas City, team-mates, and Becker, Louisville, has been by Becker, who has registered 52 times, with 24.

Good, Kansas City, has been eliminated from the triple tie for league honors shared with his teammates, Fred and Becker, last week, the latter pair now leading with six each, while Becker also passed Good for total bases with 125. Crane, St. Louis, took the lead in sacrifices with 21, and Burgh, Milwaukee, is showing the way to the base stealers with 24.

McCormick Making Good

Barry McCormick, one time third sacker of the Cubs, and later with the Washington club, the most recent addition to the staff of National League umpires, is making good on his new job. Barry appeared at the Polo grounds as a National League umpire for the first time a short while ago and made a hit with both players and fans by the manner in which he ruled upon this season.

Rain Halts League Race

Rain halted the National League race Tuesday when clouds swept over the ball diamonds at New York and Philadelphia.

Today the Reds are scheduled to play a double-header with Philadelphia while the Giants cross bats with the Pittsburgh Pirates at the Polo grounds.

Red fans here are watching the league standing with keen interest and are steadily building for the Reds to take another start and find in fact share and then take a grip on the position that will keep them there the remainder of the season.

Mack Signs Terry Turner

ST. LOUIS, July 16.—Terry Turner, of the Cleveland Americans, has been signed to play second base for the Philadelphia Athletics. It was announced here today. Turner will join the Philadelphia team at Cleveland next Sunday.

KILBANE TO DON THE GLOVES AGAIN

Champion Johnny Kilbane is to don the gloves again. He has been engaged by Jimmy Dougherty, the fight promoter of Leiperille, Penn., to meet Joey Fox, the English featherweight, for six rounds at the Philadelphia National League Park on July 21. They will go six rounds.

REDS LOSE CHANCE FOR PAULETTE IN PHILLY-ST. LOUIS DEAL

Manager Cravath made his first big trade Tuesday, when he swapped Pitchers Jacobson and Woodward and infielder Eichel to the St. Louis Club for Pitcher Mendonces and Gene Paulette, who can play anywhere. The men will report to their new teams tomorrow. The trading of Paulette is a blow to the Reds, who had hoped that he would be secured for general utility man, as he can play any position with good success and would have been a great help to the Reds in case of accident. Now it is too late to get him, for Cravath realizes his value and will not let him get away from him.

Tinker After Outfielder

President Joe Tinker of the Columbus American Association team is casting about for an outfielder. The team is crippled at this time by injured players. A good outfielder would keep the club well stocked.

"I LET HIM HAVE THIS RIGHT, FIRST," JACK TELLS BOYS

Jack Dempsey, telling group at Cincinnati how he dropped Willard. It's all very interesting to read from Jack's own lips. Three boys above—including the one who still a lad though he is probably a daddy—are in the seventh heaven as Jack tells how his first fight was a right to Willard's heart and his next a left to Willard's jaw. These two blows put Willard in a daze, from which he couldn't recover.

Yanks Win And Lose Alexander Wins Game

DETROIT, July 16.—New York and Detroit broke even on a double header yesterday, the locals winning the first contest 12 to 2 and losing the second, 3 to 1. It wound up the series in which Detroit took four out of five. The first game was a swiftest, in which the Tigers hit for twenty-four times while Dubs held New York to seven scattered hits. Young, Heinemann, Bush and Vach led the batting, the latter getting two triples.

The second game ended at the end of the sixth to allow New York to catch a train, was won by timely hitting combined with Holland's costly error in the third.

Wagner May Manage Team

Hans Wagner, old-time baseball star will manage and partly control the proposed Akron team which may be admitted to the American association next year. Charles Skelly one of the promoters, made this known today.

Strens Ancient and Modern.
According to ancient Greek legends of mythology, the strens were a sort of sea nymphs, beautiful creatures with musical voices, who frequented a certain locality in the Mediterranean sea, and by melodious song turned the heads of mariners and lured them to their destruction. Hence, by a figure of speech, the turn has come to be applied to bewitching females who charm men by their musical voices and fascinating ways.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS WILL MEET IN THIS HALL

Victoria Hall, Geneva, Switzerland. This beautiful hall, erected by F. Barton, a British patron of music, will be used by the league of nations representatives for their meetings. It will be virtually the capital of the world. There has been talk, though, of holding the first meeting in Washington as a courtesy to the U. S.

Who Invented Spitball?

Next to the origin of baseball itself there have been more disputes over the inventor of the curve ball, and next to that discovery of the modern spitball is shrouded in mystery.

Elmer Stricklett, who came out of the bushes to the White Sox in 1901, has been most generally credited with being the first to introduce the moist delivery in practical form. He taught it to Big Ed Walsh, who afterward became king of the spitballs, while Stricklett never won great laurels in the major as a finger.

Now comes Manager Mitchell of the Cubs with the assertion that Phil "Frisco" Pratt, old time pitcher for the Phillies, "and etc." as long as Pratt was in the game, he was the first to use the spitball. The Cub boss declares that Frisco was monkeying with the spitball at least a year before Stricklett was heard from, but he never used it much because he thought it too erratic to control with any degree of certainty.

MANAGERSHIP TROUBLES FORMER CUB STAR

Mordred Brown, the old Cub star, never worked so hard in his life and perhaps never worried a tenth as much as now when he is trying to meet expectations with his Terre Haute Three Eye League ball club. It is almost pathetic. He is going into the box more than any of his pitchers, and doing double turns at it, too, if necessary.

To Cleanse a Wound.

If a wound is greasy, cleanse with a pledge of the absorbent cotton mottosaid in benzine, or the antiseptic mottosaid. Cover the wound with several thicknesses of iodoforn gauze if you have it—as you should have in your first-aid kit; and with a little more absorbent cotton, and bandage in place. Unless necessary to stop bleeding, do not bandage too tightly.

Largest Electric Motor.

What is said to be the largest electric motor yet built has recently been completed by a leading American electrical manufacturer, for use in driving a two-high 30-inch reversing blooming mill, which reverses for every pass; that is, every time metal goes through the rolls. Reversals can be made from full speed to full speed in about two seconds, and in regular work 10 or 20 passes are made in two minutes. The motor has a rating of 15,000, and complete it weighs more than 250 tons. It is 20 feet high and the shaft is over two feet in diameter.

An Art Aphorism.

Here is an art aphorism from Jean Francois Millet: "I have been reproached for not observing detail; I see it, but I prefer to construct the synthesis which is an artistic effect, and is higher and more robust. You reproach me with insensibility to charm; why, I open your eyes to that which you do not perceive, but which is none the less real—the dramatic."

Smile and Sing.

If you hate to see overcast, lowering faces, just remember that your downcast face may shadow others' spirits. If you dislike to hear a voice that utters, snake up your mind that your own shall ring with good cheer. Someone must do the smiling, someone must do the singing. Why should it not be you?

Daily Thought.

God is love. Therefore love. Without distinction, without calculation, without premeditation, love. Layeth it upon the poor, where it is very easy; especially upon the rich, who often need it most; most of all upon our equals, where it is very difficult, and for whom perhaps we do least of all.—H. Drummond.

A Way to Test the World.

There is one way for every man to determine for himself whether the world is growing better or worse. All he has to do is to ascertain whether the number of people who agree with him is increasing or diminishing.—Houston Post.

Hawaii Has 250,000 People.

Hawaii was annexed by the United States in 1898. The islands cover 8,540 square miles. The last United States census of the islands gave a population of about 102,000, and it is believed to be now somewhere in the neighborhood of 240,000. This country imports more than $50,000,000 worth of sugar annually from Hawaii. Powerful wireless stations link up the United States and Japan. Pearl Harbor is one of our most important naval stations.

Chance for Real Friend in Need.

As the motorist turned a corner in a quiet country road he saw a brother of the wheel just ahead, evidently in trouble. Immediately he slowed down. "Want any help?" he asked, gently. The other motorist looked gratefully at him as he wiped the perspiration off his brow. "I do," he whispered. "See that lady in the car? She's my wife, and I'd be much obliged if you'd answer her questions and keep her amused while I'm seeing to this punctured tire."

The Perfect Bull Terrier.

The modern bull terrier is the result of very careful and intensive breeding. It is now a well-defined type and has lost almost all the characteristics of its ancestor, the bulldog. It must be pure white, except for the nose and eyes, which must be black. Any other marks, while they do not disqualify in the show ring, are considered undesirable.

Baby Born on a Shetland Island.

Some years ago a bonus was paid to a baby in extraordinary circumstances. The new arrival was born at Hales, one of the outlying islands of the Shetland group, and it seems that it was the first baby to be born on the island for two centuries. The proprietor of the island forthwith sent $125 to its mother, a working woman, who was employed on the island in connection with a fish curing station.

English Channel Shallow.

In its deepest part the English channel between Dover and Calais does not exceed 150 feet, and for a long distance from the shore it does not exceed 50 feet.

No Know.

"Dad," said little Reginald, "what is a bookshop?" "A bookshop, my son," said the father, feelingly, "is a modern co-operative establishment to which a man takes a barrel and brings back the bung hole."—Puck.

In recommending Honorable Simeon M. Johnson, of Cincinnati for the vacancy on the United States District Court of Appeals, Senator Pomeroy has recognized one of the ablest attorneys in this section. Mr. Johnson has long been recognized as one of the leaders of the Cincinnati bar and in ability, character and integrity he fully justifies the high esteem in which he is held. Should Mr. Johnson be appointed by the president, he will prove a worthy successor of the distinguished John W. Warrington who has resigned on account of age, and will add new lustre to the record of the court. Hundreds of friends of Mr. Johnson throughout Ohio hope to have the pleasure of congratulating him upon his appointment.

It is quite commendable in council to determine to meet growing demands by giving city facilities to new additions. All progressive cities do that. Why Akron, Ohio, is laying miles of water mains now to additions that exist only in name, but which, within a year, will be built up. And as a result of public spirit along this line, Akron is one of the fastest growing cities in the world. Akron gives her factories room to grow by providing homes for the men and women who will be employed. Portsmouth will grow too, grow rapidly, as soon as our building keeps up with the demand. So let us go ahead and do what we can this year. Next year we can keep up the good work, and the burden will not be excessive.

If Great Britain should drop us a note one of these days and suggest that it would be self-determination to let New York form an independent government, a howl would go up that could be heard to high heaven. Yet that is just what some citizens are proposing that the United States do in the matter of Ireland. Ireland is an integral part of the British empire just the same as New York state is a part of the United States and however much we may sympathize with Ireland, we have no right to interfere, unless we are prepared to fight the British Empire to sustain our representations. And we do not think anybody in America is hankering for war.

Portsmouth is a pretty good town in which to live and conditions here, both as to living expenses and wages, are on a par with most other places. These are things to be taken into consideration when alluring offers are made to you to take a job somewhere else. There is sometimes a string of some kind, only it does not develop until it is too late to turn back. Of course there are opportunities that one cannot afford to turn down, but careful investigation should be made before coming to a decision.

When the peace treaty question has ceased to agitate, we are going to start a new connection by writing a letter to Mr. Wilson and asking him to please tell the director general of railroads that Portsmouth was once promised a new depot by the Norfolk & Western railroad, and that he had better build it before all the money is spent.

We are victims of a dark suspicion that the Manufacturers Oil and Gas Company, of Pittsburgh, has an oil pocket spotted on our possessions on Brush Creek and some day is going to dig or drill down to it and make an oil magnate out of us over night. Else why should the said corporation keep on paying us lease rentals and refuse to cancel the lease when we are perfectly willing to let them off?

With the growth of aerial navigation, we suppose the day will be not far distant when the Times will own a couple of little planes and will deliver its edition all over the county right after publication hour. Sounds fanciful, does it not, but it is not unlikely within the next five years.

Having experimented in driving a machine for a few days, we are quite ready to agree with the viewpoint of the average motorist that the other fellow is always the derelict contrariest and most reckless driver that ever had hold of an automobile wheel.

One young niece, just home from a long visit to Chicago, is quite blue on the subject of large cities. She says Chi is quite a town but for her part she does not see that it has much on Portsmouth except that it is a little bigger. And as for movies, why she didn't see any that had a thing on our own.

Queer world. A man who never took a drink in his life, who takes intoxicating liquors like poison, told us yesterday that he had been experimenting with raisins in a certain fermented drink and that he believed there was really something in the yarn after all. And he grew indignant when we laughed.

Men used to get drunk and then sick. But with the new drinks about all they'll be able to do will be to get sick.—Toledo Blade.

We suspect the only objection the Germans have to the published announcement that Clemenceau is going to retire, is that he didn't think of it soon enough.—Wilmington News.

Of course a national career of splendid isolation is all right, but with air ships cavorting across the ocean in a couple of days it is going to be blamed hard to be isolated. And just think what will happen in the next war, with its possibilities of aerial transportation of troops.

If they keep on establishing republics at the present rate in the old country, pretty soon there won't be any titles left except in American lodge-rooms.—Parsons (Kan.) Sun.

THE WISHING PLANE

The king of course never had known of the secret door in the rubber band that had been stripping the castle. With their guns in front of them, the guards rushed on the robbers. Four of them were caught. The other two dashed through a small doorway at the other side of the room and disappeared. The king, Jack and two of the guards kept on their trail. The door of this passageway ran down hill. The king and Jack fell several times, and almost rolled over each other. They could hear the two men running and stumbling ahead of them. Once when Jack fell he felt a sudden pain in his ankle, and was sure that he had strained it like he had once before in Mike-Bellevue Town. He was too excited, though, to take the time to think about it and hobbled on. At last they saw a pale light far ahead, and a second or two later saw the two robbers appear in the light and then disappear. Running on, Jack and the king and the two guards soon discovered that this light was at the end of the tunnel. Imagine their surprise when on reaching the doorway they found that it led them into a little court in the center of the castle. Across from them in the court was a door leading into the kitchen. It dawned on Jack and the king that this was the way the robbers had gotten into the castle, because the court, being in the center of the building, could not be seen by the guards around the castle. The court had not been guarded because no one thought for a minute that anyone could get into it by any other way than the kitchen door.

The guard in the hall finally stopped and whispered back that he could see a light further down the passage. From then on everyone walked on tiptoe. Jack was almost forced to crawl along the floor while one of the guards crept along the floor on his hands and knees to clear the way of rubbish and anything that the men or Jack might trip over and make a noise.

At last Jack and his friends could make out the cause of the light. It was a small fire in the center of a room. Around the fire sat half a

This door stood open and Jack and his friends knew that the robbers had run into the kitchen and by this time probably had slipped out the other door of that room into the castle grounds. Although they thought the two men probably had escaped, they kept on after them. (Copyright, 1919.)

NEW YORK DAY-BY-DAY

NEW YORK, July 16—

I love little children, but I'm a poor hand at amusing them. So the other day, when a friend of mine left his girl of eight in my apartment, while he went shopping.

For some scotchishandgin. I tried to entertain her. With a crazy tale About my trained broadsword. I told her the broadsword. Was a little bit. Take the tale fly. And came from Ungawuba. And after it would bit.

WHO'S WHO IN THE DAYS NEWS

NIKOLAS PASHITCH

Though he resigned from the Serbian presidency some months ago, and though he is advanced in age, Nikola Pashitch remains a prominent figure in the politics of Serbia.

Pashitch is the leader of the Serbian Radical party, which he founded. Always active politically, he became prime minister of Serbia in 1905 and remained at the head of the Serbian cabinet almost uninterruptedly until the beginning of the present year. He conducted Serbian resistance to the Austro-Hungarian tariff war of 1903, directed Serbian affairs during the Bosnian annexation crisis of 1908-9, prepared on behalf of Serbia the Balkan alliance of 1913 and was responsible for the Serbian attitude during the whole of the war. His personal conception of the future of Serbia was that she should form a "Greater Serbia" by the annexation of the Serbs of Austria-Hungary and of Montenegro rather than that all the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes outside Serbia should join her in forming a united southern Slav state.

A little girl. It had to eat a strawberry. Within an hour. Or it would die. And I laughed for four. And she looked interested. As if I was to continue. So I told her. That the strawberries. In Ungawuba. Were as big as her head. And that the strawberries. Would eat the strawberries. Until their heads. Would begin to swell. And then they would fly. Clear to the north pole. Where their heads. Would freeze solid. And the natives. Would catch them. And break off their heads. And ship them to America. Where they would be used. For billiard balls. And just then the father. Came back from shopping. And had scotchishandgin. Under his arm. And a little inside. And later I heard the child. Outside my door say: "Papa that poor man." "Dought to be looked after." "He doesn't seem right." "But I had to listen." "For I was afraid of him." "He told the silliest story." So there you are! Enjoying Vacation.
